

Incredible Years Basic Parent 2015-2016 Outcomes Summary

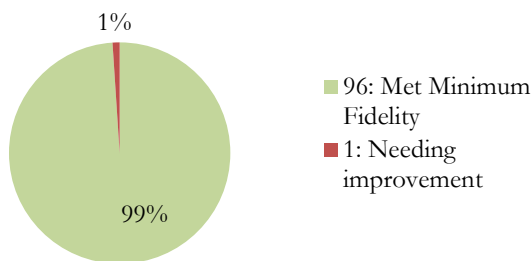

The Pennsylvania Commission on Crime and Delinquency provided funds to support six Incredible Years providers in 2015-2016. The program was implemented in eight counties: Adams, Allegheny, Bedford, Chester, Lackawanna, Lancaster, Somerset, and Westmoreland.

Targeted Risk and Protective Factors:

- Poor Family Management
- Family Conflict
- Family History of Antisocial Behavior Family Attachment
- Family Opportunities for Prosocial Involvement
- Family Rewards for Prosocial Involvement

Model Fidelity: The goal is for providers to observe 20 percent of the sessions taught to assess model fidelity. For the Incredible Years, minimum fidelity is defined as having conducted at least 75 percent of the program as designed by the developer.

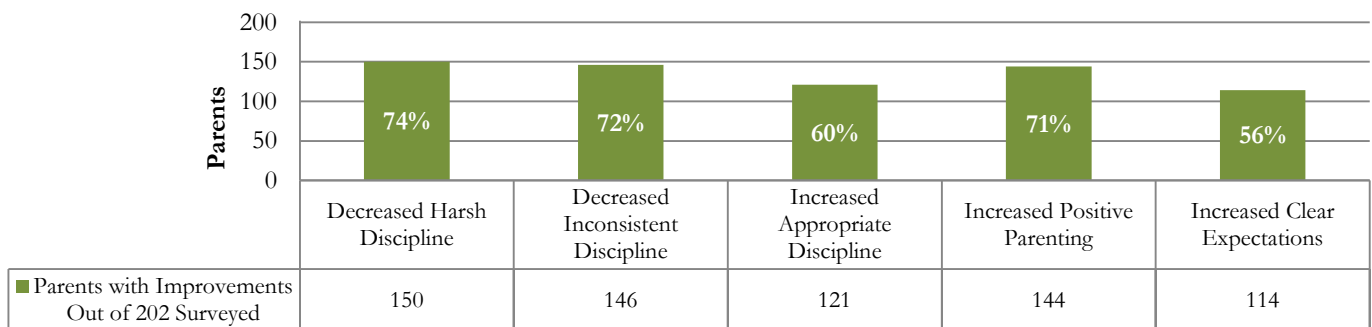

Sessions Observed: 97

Why is Model Fidelity important?

Evidence-based programs are proven to get high quality outcomes for youth, families, and communities. However, these programs only predictably produce quality outcomes when they are implemented as they were designed by the researchers who developed them, with fidelity to the model.

Incredible Years Basic Parent Outcomes

IYS Surveys: IYS Basic surveys are completed by parents during the first and last sessions of the program. There were 202 Parents out of 279 served that completed pre/post measures; which is 72 percent of those that were served.

The EPISCenter represents a collaborative partnership between the Pennsylvania Commission on Crime and Delinquency (PCCD), and the Bennett Pierce Prevention Research Center, College of Health and Human Development, Penn State University. The EPISCenter is funded by PCCD and the PA Department of Human Services. This resource was developed by the EPISCenter through PCCD grant VP-

Incredible Years Advance Parent 2015-2016 Outcomes Summary

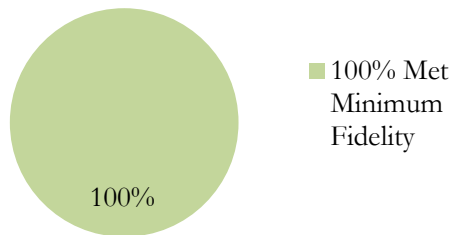

The Pennsylvania Commission on Crime and Delinquency provided funds to support one Incredible Years provider in 2015-2016. The Advance program was implemented in two counties: Bedford and Somerset.

Targeted Risk and Protective Factors:

- Poor Family Management
- Family Conflict
- Family History of Antisocial Behavior Family Attachment
- Family Opportunities for Prosocial Involvement
- Family Rewards for Prosocial Involvement
- Parental Depression

Model Fidelity: The goal is to observe 20 percent of the sessions taught to assess model fidelity. For the Incredible Years, minimum fidelity is defined as having conducted at least 75 percent of the program as designed by the developer.

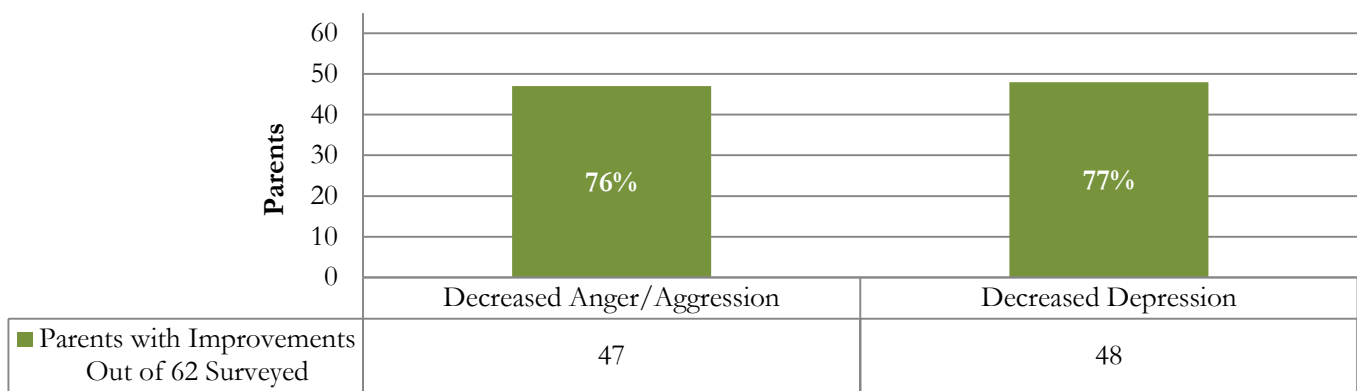

Sessions Observed: 12

Why is Model Fidelity important?

Evidence-based programs are proven to get high quality outcomes for youth, families, and communities. However, these programs only predictably produce quality outcomes when they are implemented as they were designed by the researchers who developed them, with fidelity to the model.

Incredible Years Advance Parent Outcomes

IYS Surveys: IYS Advance surveys are completed by parents during the first and last sessions of the program. There were 62 Parents out of 85 served that completed pre/post measures; which is 73 percent of the parents served.

The EPISCenter represents a collaborative partnership between the Pennsylvania Commission on Crime and Delinquency (PCCD), and the Bennett Pierce Prevention Research Center, College of Health and Human Development, Penn State University. The EPISCenter is funded by PCCD and the PA Department of Human Services. This resource was developed by the EPISCenter through PCCD grant VP-ST-24368.

Incredible Years Small Group 2015-2016 Outcomes Summary

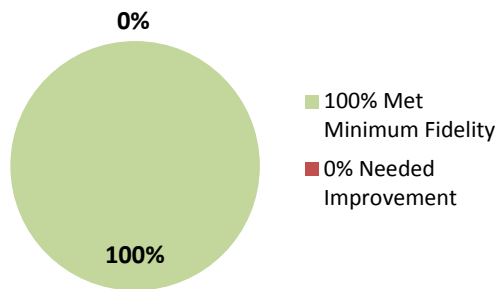

The Pennsylvania Commission on Crime and Delinquency (PCCD) provided funds to support five Incredible Years Small Group Therapy providers in 2015-2016. The program was implemented in six counties: Adams, Allegheny, Bedford, Chester, Lackawanna, and Lancaster.

Description of the Targeted Risk and Protective Factors for Youth:

- Poor Academic Performance
- Favorable Attitudes Towards Antisocial Behavior
- Peer Rewards for Antisocial Behavior
- Opportunities for Prosocial Involvement
- Rewards for Prosocial Involvement

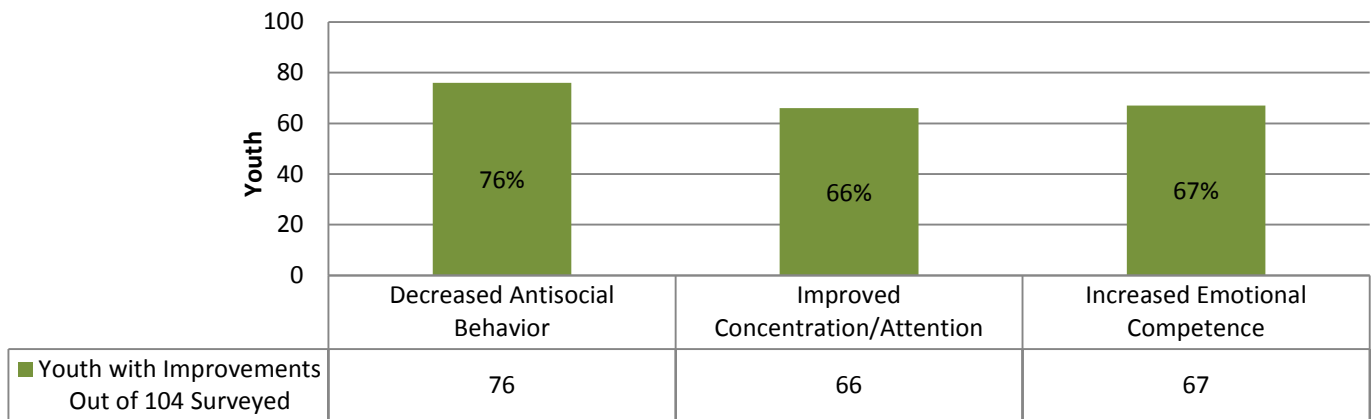

Model Fidelity: The goal is to observe 20 percent of the sessions taught to assess model fidelity. For the Incredible Years, minimum fidelity is defined as having conducted at least 75 percent of the program as designed by the developer.

Why is Model Fidelity important?

Evidence Based programs are proven to get high quality outcomes for youth, families, and communities. However, these programs only predictably produce quality outcomes when they are implemented as they were designed by the researchers who developed them, with fidelity to the model.

Incredible Years Dina Small Group Outcomes

IYS Surveys: IYS Small group surveys are completed by teachers or parents before the first and after the last sessions of the program. There were 104 youth out of 137 served who completed pre/post measures; which is 76 percent of those that were served.

The EPISCenter represents a collaborative partnership between the Pennsylvania Commission on Crime and Delinquency (PCCD), and the Bennett Pierce Prevention Research Center, College of Health and Human Development, Penn State University. The EPISCenter is funded by PCCD and the PA Department of Human Services. This resource was developed by the EPISCenter through PCCD grant VP-

Incredible Years Dinosaur Classroom 2015-2016 Outcomes Summary

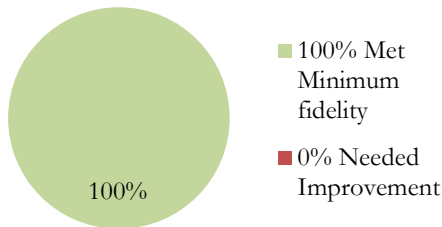

The Pennsylvania Commission on Crime and Delinquency provided funds to support one Incredible Years Dina Classroom provider in 2015-2016. This universal prevention program was implemented in schools in two counties: Bedford and Somerset.

Targeted Risk and Protective Factors:

- Poor Academic Performance
- Favorable Attitudes Towards Antisocial Behavior
- Peer Rewards for Antisocial Behavior
- School Opportunities for Prosocial Involvement
- School Rewards for Prosocial Involvement

Model Fidelity: The goal is to observe 20 percent of the sessions taught to assess model fidelity. For the Incredible Years, minimum fidelity is defined as having conducted at least 75 percent of the program as designed by the developer.

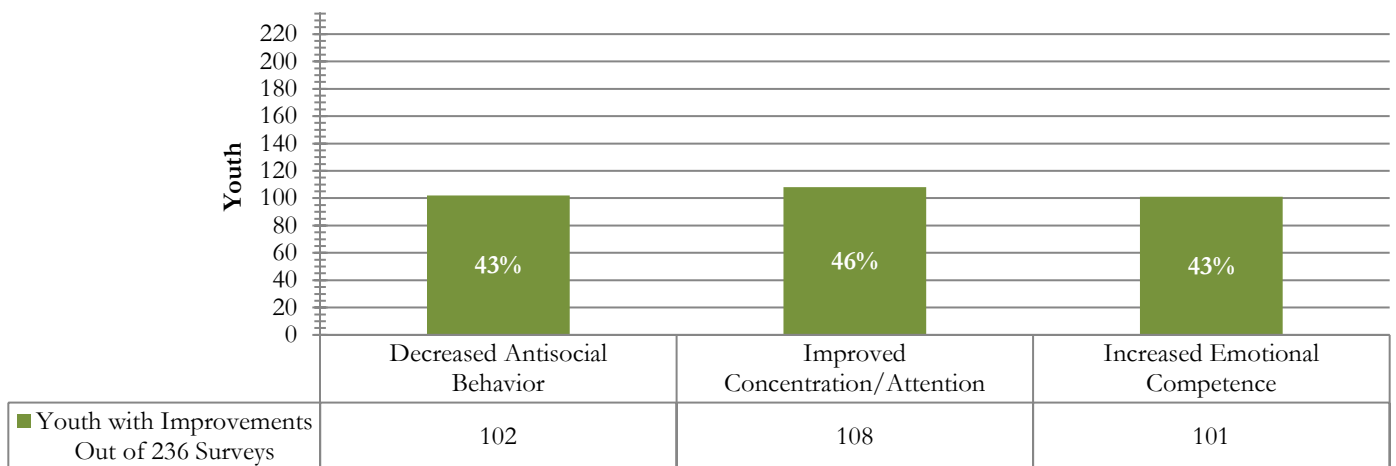

Sessions Observed: 47

Why is Model Fidelity important?

Evidence-based programs are proven to get high quality outcomes for youth, families, and communities. However, these programs only predictably produce quality outcomes when they are implemented as they were designed by the researchers who developed them, with fidelity to the model.

Incredible Years Dinosaur School Outcomes

IYS Surveys: IYS Dinosaur School surveys were completed by facilitators during the first and last sessions of the program. There were 236 youth out of 248 served that completed pre/post measures; which is 95 percent of the youth served.

The EPISCenter represents a collaborative partnership between the Pennsylvania Commission on Crime and Delinquency (PCCD), and the Bennett Pierce Prevention Research Center, College of Health and Human Development, Penn State University. The EPISCenter is funded by PCCD and the PA Department of Human Services. This resource was developed by the EPISCenter through PCCD grant VP-ST-24368.